

Balkans' United Again!—Prince Carol of Roumania has married Princess Helena of Greece, and all is peace again in the Balkans. Royal splendor was the feature of the event.

One-Man Power Flier.—Paul Jarz, its inventor, calls this the J-Cycle. It's an improvement on the bicycle and just as speedy.

A White House Caller.—Sweden's new Minister, Captain Alex F. Wallenberg, on his way to present his credentials to President Harding.

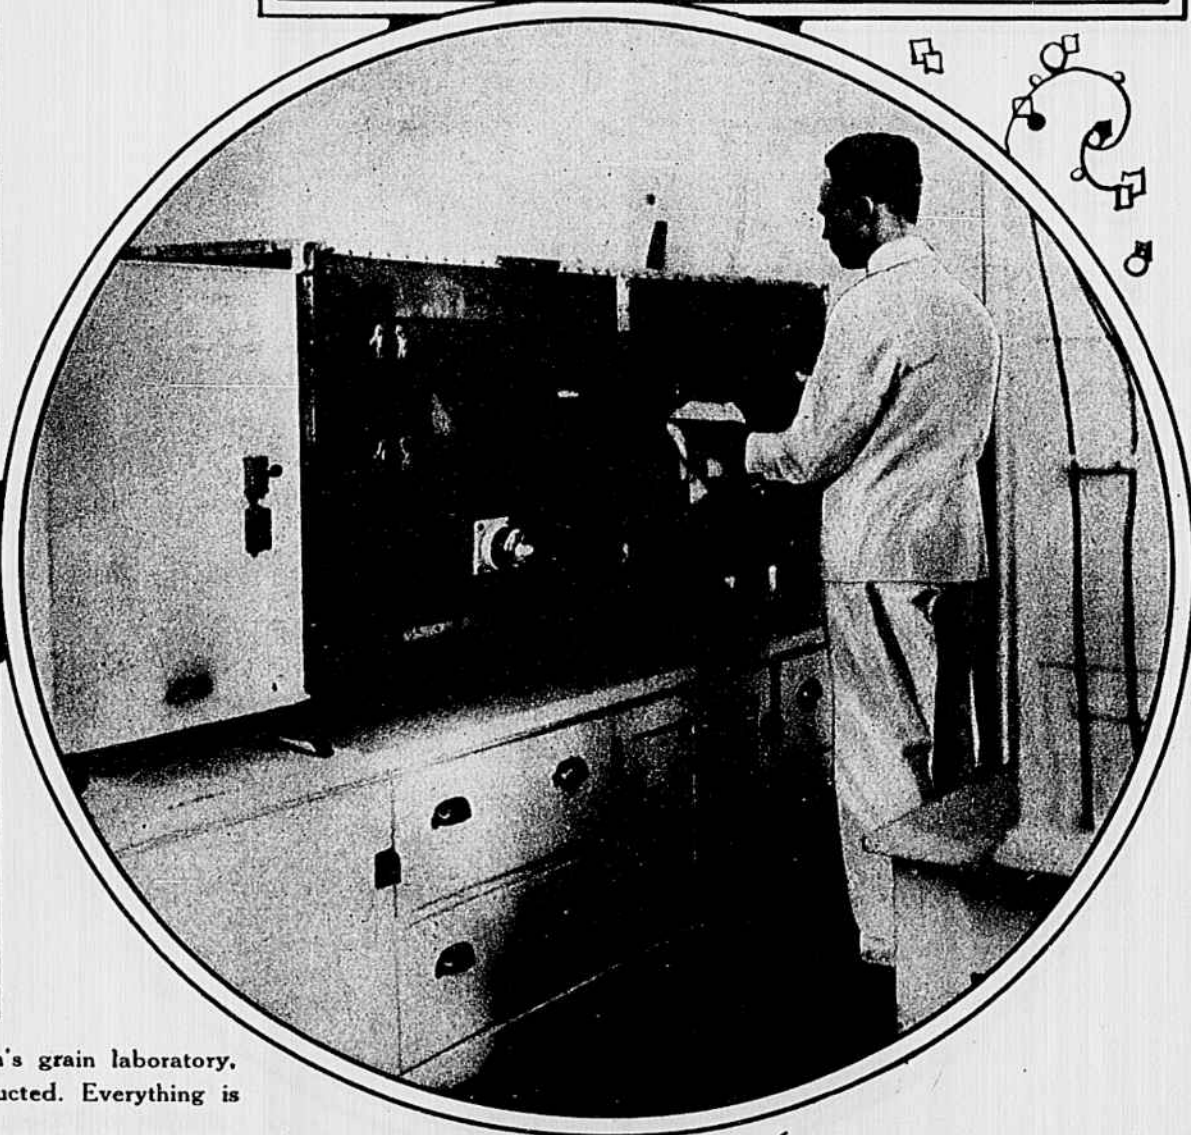

Decorated for Valiant Service.—Chief Gunner's Mate R. E. Cox, U. S. N., was decorated by President Harding with the Congressional Medal of Honor for saving the Battleship Missouri from destruction off Pensacola, Fla., in 1904.

Latin Statesman Will Tour Europe.—Captain Luis Aubry, attaché of the Peruvian Embassy, and Ambassador Frederick Alfonso Pezet starting from New York for an extensive tour of Europe.

Pay Their Respects to Harding.—Members of the International Joint Commission leaving White House after calling on President Harding. Obadiah Gardner, Chairman of the American Commission, and J. L. Burt, Secretary of the Canadian Section, are shown in this photograph.

Uncle Sam a Miller.—A peep into Uncle Sam's grain laboratory, where experiments with flour grains are conducted. Everything is electrically controlled.